If the Supreme Court can overturn Roe v. Wade and, with it, fifty years of precedent, it's not safe to assume it will uphold the more recent decisions protecting marriage equality for same-sex couples.

Currently, due to Proposition 8, the California Constitution contains discriminatory language that defines marriage as only between a man and a woman.

Proposition 3 seeks to remove this outdated language and replace it with a provision that establishes the right to marry as a fundamental right, enshrined in our constitution.

Join JCRC Bay Area in voting for love and acceptance, ensuring that everyone has the right to marry the person they love, regardless of race, gender, or sexual orientation.

This is our chance to take a proactive step to safeguard these rights in our state.
