The JCRC has invaluable insight into the Jewish community and the diverse opinions of its members. I know that when a sensitive issue arises I can count on the JCRC to provide discreet, discerning and accurate advice that is in sync with Jewish community attitudes and positions.”

—Supervisor Scott Wiener
San Francisco Board of Supervisors, District 8

“Every day the JCRC works to pursue a just society, and a secure Jewish future. You build bridges between the Jewish community, government and the entire Bay Area, and we all benefit. Thank you.”

—Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi
House of Representatives, California District 12

PURSUITING A JUST SOCIETY AND A SECURE JEWISH FUTURE
REPRESENTING THE ORGANIZED JEWISH COMMUNITY

JCRC envisions an inclusive Bay Area where people from across the political spectrum can meaningfully discuss challenging topics, and inspire and empower one another.

We mobilize the local Jewish community on critical issues from civil rights and LGBTQ equality to immigration reform, economic justice and Israel.

We serve as a trusted liaison to elected officials, advocate on behalf of our community for its freedom of religion and expression, and build bridges of communication with other interest and faith-based groups. We also support a strong friendship, based on shared values, between the United States and Israel and embrace Israel’s integral role in modern Jewish identity.

WORKING IN COALITION

JCRC is proud to participate in coalitions with interfaith, interethnic and intergroup partners.

We believe the best way to strengthen our community is to establish relationships with individuals and organizations in other communities who share our vision, values and concerns. We are constantly seeking to broaden and deepen the relationships we have and to foster meaningful new relationships for our common pursuit of a just society.

JEWISH COMMUNITY ADVOCACY

With nearly 70 years of experience, JCRC is the go-to public affairs organization for the Bay Area’s organized Jewish community. We work tirelessly to ensure that our community’s interests are represented in the public sphere.

Our advocacy efforts are directly informed by consensus policy statements, which we craft through extensive deliberation in order to reflect divergent views within the Jewish community. These consensus documents guide us as we work for social justice and societal change in coalition with other communities.

ISRAEL AND THE MIDDLE EAST

JCRC is committed to promoting a secure and vibrant Jewish and democratic state, and advocates a two-state solution to achieve that goal.

We work within the Jewish community, and with our allies outside of it, to fight the campaign to delegitimize Israel. We strive for peace and reconciliation through education and community action and lead our community in actively combating the Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS) movement.

We provide a variety of workshops for community members to keep them up to speed on issues of concern, and we conduct programs to promote civil discourse.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS CONSULTING SERVICES

Jewish institutions of all kinds turn to JCRC for consultation on sensitive issues. We can be counted on to provide timely and expert advice with discretion and a deep understanding of our community’s needs and concerns.
